

Resolution Concerning the Dratted ALA Event Planner

Whereas, Many ALA members have felt frustrated with the usability of the ALA Event Planner; and

Whereas, Many of the suggestions made by council members, the conference committee, and other members about the ALA Event Planner and scheduling have not yet been implemented; now, therefore, be it

Resolved, that the American Library Association (ALA) Council urges the ALA Executive Director to present a preliminary report to the Executive Board at its Spring 2010 meeting on how ALA staff have implemented the Event Planner and related scheduling suggestions, and why the others should not be implemented, and to present a final report on the same topics to Council before the 2010 Annual Conference.
